

Managely – Forte – Settle period time frames for transactions

02/12/2024 6:11 pm EST

Different payment methods require different time frames for the transaction to settle.

The payment methods processed through Managely via Forte (the payment processor) are:

1. Credit Cards
2. eChecks

The settle period times for the transactions to settle:

The 'settled' period is the time it takes the payment to move from the customer's account to the account that you have set up with Forte.

1. Credit cards settle period is 24 – 48 hours.
2. eChecks settle period is between five to seven business days.

Note: Keep in mind that Holidays or unexpected problems at Forte's end will impact these time frames.
