

Truncated Error

02/03/2025 6:46 pm EST

This error indicates that the data being written to a field is too large for the field and would have part of the data cut off. To prevent this from occurring and leading to incomplete data, the system is stopping the process writing the data. This will require a transfer to the Data team as this needs to be investigated with SQL.

---