

Billing & Collections Support

A Wise Financial Consulting Service

Wise Financial Consulting offers comprehensive billing and collections support tailored to fire and security companies. Our service provides disciplined follow-through, restored structure, and real execution, while maintaining strong customer relationships. Led by professionals with over 30 years of hands-on collections experience, our team understands the complex, service-driven environments where billing, operations, and long-term customer relationships intersect. Delivered by seasoned collections and financial operations professionals with decades of hands-on industry experience.

The Situation We See:	How Wise Helps:	How the Work Is Structured:	Why This Works for Fire and Security Companies:	The Outcome:
• Revenue earned but not converted to timely cash • Billing disputes and service misalignment • Aging receivables reducing cash flow predictability and leadership visibility	• We operate as an extension of your team • Hands-on, structured support • Consistency, accountability, and financial control	• Support customized to each business • Consistent follow-up and early issue resolution • Clear reporting that drives accountability and action	• Complex billing environments • Inspections, recurring revenue, and field service work • Long-term customer contracts and Multi-location or technician-based operations	• Improved and more predictable cash flow • Measurable reductions in aging receivables • Faster resolution of billing and dispute issues

Why Wise:

Clients experience improved and more predictable cash flow, measurable reductions in aging receivables, and faster resolution of billing and dispute issues. Leadership regains control and visibility over what was once a reactive process, allowing teams to focus on growth instead of backlog.

Practical leadership. Proven execution. Stronger cash flow.